FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

6. Hikma is and was, at all times relevant to the within Complaint, engaged in the development, manufacture and sale of pharmaceutical products.

7. Cura is and was, at all times relevant to the within Complaint, a distributor and seller of pharmaceutical products in the United States.

8. On or about January 22, 2002, Hikma and Cura entered into a certain “Distribution, Manufacture and Supply Agreement” (the “2002 Agreement”), pursuant to which Hikma agreed to sell to Cura, and Cura agreed to purchase from Hikma, the following pharmaceutical products: Epinephrine HCL, Vitamin C, Sodium Mohruhate and Aurothioglucose.

9. A true copy of the 2002 Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference.

10. Under the 2002 Agreement, the parties agreed that Hikma would invoice Cura for the products sold to it at "Manufacturing Cost" (as defined in the Agreement), payment to be made within thirty (30) days of invoice date, and that, in addition, the parties would share equally in the "Net Profits" (as defined in the Agreement) generated from the sale of the subject products.

11. The 2002 Agreement provided for an initial term commencing upon the date of the agreement and continuing until the fifth (5th) anniversary of the date upon which approval was first received from regulatory authorities to market the products, subject to extension by Cura for two (2) additional terms of two (2) years each.

12. At all times relevant to the within Complaint, the 2002 Agreement was in effect.
